Section 3: "Properties" shall mean and refer to that certain real property hereinabove described, and such additions thereto as may hereafter be brought within the jurisdiction of the Association.

Section 4: "Common Area" shall mean all real property (including the improvements thereto) owned by the Association for the common use and enjoyment of the owners.

Section 5: "Lot" shall mean and refer to any plot of land shown upon any recorded subdivision map of the properties with the exception of the common area.

Section 6: "Capital Improvement Assessment" shall mean and refer to assessments for maintenance and improvements to common areas that are $500 or more.

Section 7: "Proxy" shall mean and refer to one homeowner representing another homeowner in writing for the purpose of voting.

Section 8: "Front yard" shall refer to all areas in front of the building setback line.

Section 9: "Special Assessment" shall mean and refer to assessment for any special purpose other than annual or capital improvement assessments.

Article II

Property Rights

Section 1: "Owner's Easement of Enjoyments" Every owner shall have a right and Easement of enjoyment in and to the common area which shall pass with every lot, subject to the following provisions:

- a) The right of the Association to charge reasonable admission and other fees for the use of any recreational facility situated upon the common area.
- b) The right of the Association to suspend the voting rights and the right to use the recreational facilities by an owner for any period during which any assessment against his lot remains unpaid; and for a period not to exceed 60 days for any infraction of its published rules and regulations.
- c) The right of the Association to dedicate or transfer all or any part of the Common area to any public agency, authority or utility for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be agreed to by the members. No such dedication or transfer shall be effective unless an instrument agreeing to such dedication or transfer signed by two-thirds of members has been recorded.

Section 2: "Delegation of Use" any owner may delegate in accordance with the by-laws, right of enjoyment to the common area and facilities to the members of their family, their tenants or contract purchasers who reside on the property.

Article III

Membership and Voting Rights

Section 1: Every owner of a lot which is subject to assessment shall be a member of the Association. Membership shall belong to and may not be separated from ownership of any lot which is subject to assessment.

Article IV

Covenant for Assessments

Section 1: "Purpose of Assessments" The assessments levied by the Association, whether they be special, capital improvement or annual, shall be used exclusively for the improvement and maintenance of the common areas and the irrigation system.

Section 2: "Maximum Annual Assessment" The maximum annual assessment may be increased by no more than 5% annually of the present assessment without a vote of two-thirds of members who are voting in person or by written proxy at a meeting duly called for this purpose.

Section 3: "Notice and Quorum for any action authorized under Article IV" Written notice of any meeting called for the purpose of taking any action authorized under Article IV shall be sent to all members not less than 7 days in advance of the meeting. The presence of members or written proxies entitled to vote shall be 60% to make a quorum.

Section 4: "Uniform rate of Written Assessment" Both annual, capital improvement and special assessments must be fixed at a uniform rate for all lots.

Section 5: "Effect of Nonpayment of Assessment-Remedies of the Association" Any assessment not paid with 30 days after the due date shall bear interest from the due date at the rate of 15% per annum. The Association may bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same or foreclose the lien against the property. No owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for assessments provided for herein by non-use of the common area or abandonment of their lot.

Section 6: "Creation of the Lien and Personal Obligation of Assessments" Each owner of any lot by acceptance of a deed therefore, whether or not it is expressed in such deed, is deemed to be bound by the covenants and agrees to pay to the Association: (1) annual assessments or charges and (2) special assessments or capital improvements as voted on by two-thirds of homeowners. Such assessments to be established and collected as hereinafter provided. The assessments, together with interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees, shall be a charge on the land and shall be a continuing lien upon the property against which each such assessment is made.

Each such assessment, together with interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees shall also be the personal obligation of the person who was the owner of such property at the time when the assessment fell due. The personal obligation for delinquent assessments shall pass to their successors in title, unless expressly assumed by them.

Section 7: "Subordination of the Lien to Mortgage" The lien of the assessments provided for herein shall be subordinated to the lien of any first mortgage. Sale or transfer of any lot shall not affect the assessment lien. The sale or transfer of any lot pursuant to mortgage foreclosure or any proceeding in lieu thereof shall not extinguish the lien of such assessments as to payments, which became due prior to such sale or transfer. No sale or transfer shall relieve such lot from liability for any assessments thereafter becoming due or from the lien thereof.

Article V

General Provisions

Section 1: "Enforcement" The Association, or any owner, shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of this Declaration. Failure by the Association or by any owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

Section 2: "Severability" Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by Judgment or Court Order shall in no way effect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 3: "Amendment" The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall remain with and bind the land for a term of 5 years. Amendments may be made with a majority of two-thirds of voters represented. The term of this Declaration shall be automatically extended for successive periods of 5 years.
